

UCSC Summer Sustainability Institute Seminar Series

A series of FREE evening seminars, open to students, staff, faculty & the public, will take place Tuesdays, 7-9 PM, offering talks by faculty and other experts on topics related to sustainability. The location is the meeting room at the Program in Community and Ecology, in The Village (Lower Quarry).

June 23: Defining & practicing sustainability (Ronnie Lipschutz, Politics, UCSC)

June 30: Sustainable design (Melanie Dupuis, Sociology, UCSC)

July 7: Climate change on campus and off (Dan Press, Environmental Studies, UCSC)

July 14: Sustainable Water (Ben Crow, Sociology, UCSC; Ruth Langridge, Legal Studies, UCSC)

July 21: Sustainable Cities (Hilary Nixon, Urban & Regional Planning, San Jose State University)

July 28: Renewables in Denmark & the World (Ali Shakouri, Electrical Engineering, UCSC and visiting faculty from Denmark)

August 4: Green Architecture & Building (Thomas Rettenwender & Niklas Spitz, Environmental Studies, UCSC, and architects in Monterey, CA)

August 11: Sustainability at UCSC (Aurora Winslade, Campus Sustainability Coordinator, UCSC)

August 18: Agroecology & Sustainable Farming (Steve Gliessman, PICA and Environmental Studies, UCSC)

August 25: Sustainable Transportation (Elizabeth Deakin, City & Regional Planning and Urban Design, UC-Berkeley)

